China and Tibet Overland

Tours with your own vehicle

The time has finally come! China has reopened its land borders since March 15, 2023! After a break of more than three years, tourist visas will be available again and China overland travel will be possible again. Plan your China and Tibet overland tour with Tibetmoto now.

Since we not only receive numerous inquiries, but also answer each inquiry about your overland project individually, and this takes a lot of time, we ask for your understanding if an answer takes a few days. Before making an inquiry, we recommend reading our FAQ section below first!

If you still have any further questions, please feel free to contact us!

What we need to know in order to be able to answer you:

- Nationality/age
- Travel period (day (if known), month & year)
- Transit period in days (1- 90 days)
- Entry into China/Exit from China (for example: From Kyrgyzstan to Laos)
- Number of vehicles & vehicle type

In principle, the following borders are open for entry/exit:

Laos and Myanmar – Kyrgyzstan – Kazakhstan – Mongolia – Pakistan – Nepal – Tajikistan

Do you have your own ideas about your China overland tour?

No problem, just talk to us and together we will put together your desired route for you. Please bear in mind, however, that this takes a little time due to the bureaucratic tasks – the sooner you book your China overland trip with us, the smoother the planning will go!

Which route would you like to take? The choice is yours!

Experience your adventure in China

Many holidaymakers are reluctant to even consider an overland tour of China because the bureaucratic effort seems too great and, due to the language, too difficult.

With us, you have a strong partner at your side who has his own offices with German management on site in China, knows the language, regulations and customs and is available as a contact person at all times.

We have a variety of China overland tours for you in our repertoire, for example:

- Via Kyrgyzstan to China, then on to Pakistan (from 5 days)
- From Kazakhstan through China, Tibet and Nepal (20 days)
- From Kyrgyzstan through Tibet with departure in Laos (from 26 days)
- Through Mongolia and China to Laos (27 – 29 days)
- From Kyrgyzstan to China overland, then on to Tibet and Nepal (15 – 20 days)

vehicle Logistics China

Vehicle Logistics China – How the vehicle drives

A trip through China with your own vehicle – is there a better way to explore the Middle Kingdom? But of course, this raises many questions. Especially when it comes to vehicle logistics in China. How is the vehicle transported? What permits do you need and are you even allowed to drive in China yourself? With us at your side, vehicle logistics for China becomes child's play.

We not only transport vehicles for you by car transporter, sea or rail, but also take care of all the permits for your China overland trip with your own vehicle, because tourism logistics is also one of our core areas of responsibility.

You can find more information about our vehicle service here.

CHINA

CHINA with Tibet is a country like no other, having experienced an unparalleled rise to the world stage over the last 30 years. From the power center of Beijing with its Great Wall and the Forbidden City, to the densely populated east coast with economic zones and ports near Shanghai, to the high Himalayan peaks and deserted mountain landscapes in Sichuan and the mighty rivers and rice fields of Yunnan Province in the subtropics, China offers an incredible spectrum of landscapes and adventures.

And China's soul is just as diverse as its geography, in conflict with yesterday, today and tomorrow, between the Maoist past, economic growth, opening up to the West and the desire for freedom.

On our China tours we show you the entire exciting spectrum of the Middle Kingdom, authentically and on dramatic and dreamlike routes - and through areas that hardly any "normal" tourist has ever seen.

Event Support and Tourism Logistics

For an unforgettable trip to China

As specialists in tourism logistics in China, we are at your side to create unforgettable experiences. Whether you prefer a classic route or a custom-designed route - we make it possible. Our goal is to discover new and special places and accompany you or your customers on unique experiences.

Whether fast dirt track roads for day trips or a multi-day rally, as event support in China we make dreams come true. From romantic candlelight dinners in remote locations to visits to tea plantations, we offer access to authentic and unforgettable moments in the heart of China.

Our event support in China includes:

- Hotel bookings
- Rentals of rental vehicles and motorcycles in China of all kinds (e.g. Porsche Cayenne, Toyota Land Cruiser, BMW F 800 GS, buses, camper vans, etc.)
- Exploring new routes & locations as part of Event Support China (Location Scouting)

Event Support China is your direct route to discovering surprising and breathtaking locations. And as a service provider for event support in China, it is our job to always show you the newest and most unusual stops for your China trip.

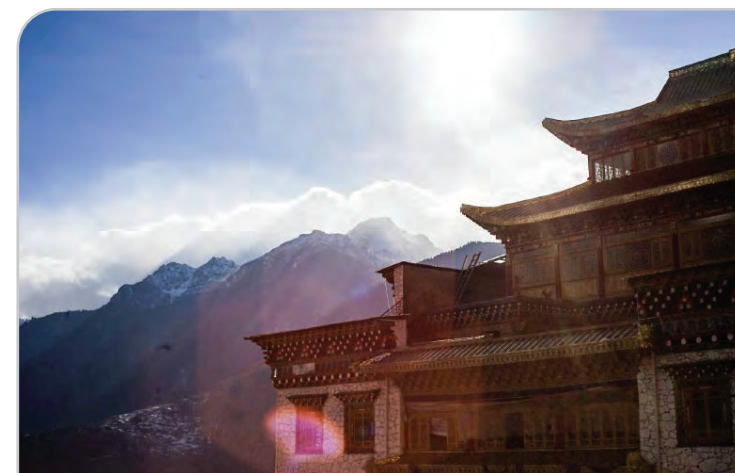

SUPPORT

SUPPORT in China and Thailand – everything from a single source from an experienced organizer and logistician. We offer our customers excellent event support, incentive and company trips, film and location fixer services for photographers and film teams and vehicle logistics.

Anyone who wants to actively organize themselves in China or Thailand often encounters difficulties. Hardly anyone speaks English or German, the approach of other companies is surprising, communication is slow or the complex official regulations put obstacles in the way of many projects.

With our efficient local offices, we successfully implement complex projects in close consultation with our customers and numerous partners in the target country. Cost-effectiveness, flexibility and strong communication skills are our strengths.

Every project is different and requires different approaches. Contact us directly for a personal consultation.
